

Pie Chart Calendar
12 Small circles representing each month
Each colour related to the season
Each circle is a pie chart representing the progress through the month
Larger circles are days formatted in weekly rows
Grey circles are days not within the month
While circles are days in the month not yet completed
Colored circles (based on the month color) are completed days
Pie chart for progress through each day